How to Enrol the Courses

1. Master's in International Relations. FULL TIME

Welcome to the twenty-second edition of the Master's in International Relations at the Institut Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals. This is an interdisciplinary programme that combines compulsory and pathway core courses, as well as electives.

At the beginning of the Master programme, we strongly recommend that you contact your personal tutor, who will guide you through your course selection and provide academic advice. Waivers must be approved by the Coordinator of the programme during the previous days of the enrolment period.

If you don't get any waiver, you must enrol in:

    a) All compulsory courses:

- 1002   Comparative Politics and Democratization (6 ECTS)
- 1004   Advanced Social Research (4 ECTS)
- 1005   Final Research Project (10 ECTS)
- 1006   International Relations Theory (6 ECTS)
- 1007   Contemporary Issues in International Relations (4 ECTS)
- 1008   International Trade and Economy (4 ECTS)

    b) ONE of the following Pathway Core Courses:

- 9001   Mediterranean Area Studies (6 ECTS)
- 9008   International Political Economy (6 ECTS)
- 9020   International Environmental Politics (6 ECTS)
- 9067   Global Governance (6 ECTS)
- 9068   Conflicts, Threats and Violence in Global Politics (6 ECTS)

    c) Electives (up to 20 ECTS)

The minimum total number of credits should be 60: 24 credits for compulsory courses + 6 credits for Pathway Core Courses + 20 credits for electives and the remaining 10 credits are for the Final Research Project.

If you get a waiver for some of the compulsory courses (and therefore you were to register less than 24 ECTS compulsory credits in total), the number of credits needs to be 60: 24 credits of compulsory courses (less waivered credits) + 6 compulsory credits of pathway core courses + 20 (more the waived credits) and the remaining 10 credits are for the Final Research Project.

The online enrolment period begins on 16 September at 9 am and ends on 19 September 2025 at 11.59 pm. If you have any further questions, you should contact the Academic Office (master@ibei.org). Please note that no changes to your course choices can be accepted after this date.
